

WISH LIST

Ten dream things we love this month!

1 Make coffee time more elegant with these hand-thrown porcelain cups in a range of beautiful celadon glazes by Derek Wilson Ceramics. From £20 each (derekwilsonceramics.com).

2 Lights need to look as good when they're turned off as they do when switched on – something Belgian lighting designer Nathalie Dewez knows all about. Her 'Disk' floor light makes a stunning visual statement. £1,309 (n.d.be).

3 These 'Garden Aperitif' chopsticks, £5 per set, are part of Spanish designer Jaime Hayón's new 'Scenes' range for Lladró. With Hayón's signature porcelain toy, £135, acting as a rest, they make a playful addition to any table (lladro.com).

4 Skilled artist, printmaker and metalworker Gordon Robertson takes an experimental approach to his pieces. This limited-edition 'Spritz' plate features hand-drawn patterns that are scanned and reworked with computer software then etched into the pewter. £350, Gas Art Agency (gasartagency.co.uk).

5 BoConcept's new 'Carmo' felt sofa is a modular system that fits together in lots of different ways. That, plus its classic boxy shape, wide choice of coverings and piping detail, makes it an all-round winner. £4,195 (boconcept.co.uk). ▶
